

How Does an Intersection Safety Camera Work?

First Image: Shows the scene of the violation including the back of the violating vehicle before the white stop line. Signal light is red.

Second Image: Shows the scene of the violation including the back of the violating vehicle after the rear axle has crossed the stop line and the vehicle has illegally entered the intersection. Signal light is red.

Third Image: Shows license plate close-up for easy identification.